

What:

PHAB Christchurch is a fortnightly social group for young people with disabilities.

When:

We meet every second Monday from 6-8pm during the school term beginning the first week of term.

Where:

PHAB Christchurch operates out of the Papanui Youth Development Centre at 1a Harewood Rd, Papanui.

Who:

The group is open to disabled people between the age of 16-21 years old, and is run by PYD youth workers Sean Bendall and Jess Case.

PHAB is an international organisation that provides social experiences for young people with disabilities. The young people become important and valued members of their communities, make friends and most of all, have fun.
